

DONE THE RIGHT WAY

KFC and our parent company, Yum! Brands, have a Recipe for Good which covers strategic investments in socially responsible growth, risk management and the stewardship of our people, food and planet. Check out some of our recent highlights below.

UN Sustainable Development Goals We Support

Our KFC Western Europe, U.K. & Ireland, and South Pacific markets are active in Sedex, one of the world's leading ethical trade membership organizations.

We launched a new global chicken welfare platform to further strengthen animal welfare practices around poultry.

We implemented onsite solar in Australia where 40+ KFC restaurants are partially powered by rooftop photovoltaic systems.

In the U.S. and Canada, we are partnering with Initiative for a Competitive Inner City on a free executive education and virtual training program designed to help strengthen and grow minority, immigrant, indigenous and disabled-owned small businesses.

KFC started donating food through Harvest, our signature food donation program in 1999. Since 1992, Yum! and our sister brands have donated 213 million pounds of food to organizations in need through Harvest.

KFC U.K. & Ireland and the University of Liverpool's Zero Carbon Research Institute entered a two-year partnership in which researchers are examining the market to identify ways to become a net-zero business by 2040.

KFC Canada replaced all plastic straws and bags with fiber-based alternatives and, introduced a fully compostable bucket in 2021.

For more information about our progress, view Yum!'s 2021 Global Citizenship & Sustainability Report at Yum.com/citizenship or our Social Impact page.